

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Physicians Prescribe Castoria.

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: 1st, The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; 2nd, That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; 3rd, It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for castor oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any opium, morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrup, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a medical journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Amelie Rives and Her Wolf Pet

LITERARY women, as a rule, have a fondness for pets. Sometimes these pets are out of the ordinary. Princess Troubetzkoy (Amelie Rives) lavishes her affection on a Siberian wolf. This animal, which on account of its size should be very ferocious, follows the princess around like a dog. More than that, it allows her to hold its cub and play with it.

The Complexion

NO WOMAN NEED HAVE A BAD ONE IF SHE TAKES THE PROPER PAINS WITH IT.

NO woman need have a bad complexion if she takes pains with it. Most bad complexions come from improper diet or condition of the blood, and no woman who has any sense will waste money on cosmetics and powders, which only make things worse by filling the pores when it is her system that is clogged and consequently her circulation that is bad. The healthy woman who keeps her stomach free from sour food and sees that her system gets a good clearing once each day need not worry over a sallow skin and dull eyes.

But there are other things that contribute to the beauty of the skin, however, and one of these is the daily tub. All the face washings imaginable will not give one-half the glow to the complexion that the thorough immersion of the body in a tub of warm water will cause. It is better still if this hot bath be followed by a cold shower as lay as one can stand. This tones up the system wonderfully.

With the daily bath and the attention to the laws of health I have mentioned a good complexion is practically insured, but there are still some details to be observed. One frequently sees women with either too greasy or too dry skins. The remedy for these is simple. The woman with a greasy skin must forego greasy and all oily foods, for her system is too full of oil as it is. She should bathe her face in a solution of alcohol in order to dry out the skin and afterward dust it with a little powdered chalk.

The woman with a dry skin, on the contrary, should keep a bottle of olive oil on her dressing table and bathe in it as well as anoint her face and hands before retiring. The effect of the oil will be wonderful. It will positively make the skin bloom and will remove all drawn lines and unsightly hollows.

BREADCRUMBS PANCAKES.

Two scant cupfuls of fine bread crumbs, two cupfuls of sweet milk, two eggs, one tablespoonful of butter, one cupful of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, half teaspoonful of salt.
 Soak the crumbs in the milk until quite soft, then beat to a paste. Melt and add the butter, the eggs—whites and yolks beaten separately—the salt and the flour, with baking powder sifted into it last of all. Cook the pancakes on a hot, greased pan and when done serve at once with golden syrup or butter and sugar or lemon and sugar.

SUFFRAGE HEADQUARTERS.

The National Woman Suffrage headquarters will henceforth be at 505 Fifth Avenue, New York City. The removal has been accomplished, and all communications except those relating to the treasurer's department should now be addressed to New York instead of to Warren, O. The treasurer, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, will carry on her work at Warren, as before.

The Right Way to Place the New Hairpins

WITH the new style of hairdressing comes the question of hairpins. These to be perfectly correct should be, like those in the picture, of shell, with large square ends, and they should contrast with the hair. A great many brunettes are wearing blond pins, and vice versa. These pins should be in sets of six. Two are placed in front, two at the sides and two in the back, just as illustrated. The pin with the round end is out of date.
